Here are a few more companies that asked to be included in our directory:

Magical Gift Dollhouses

The #1 on the list is Magical Gift Dollhouses. They pay and this is a legitimate company. They are located in Connecticut. I just looked and they added new projects. They now have a jewelry line. It is legitimate. You could earn anywhere up to $400 per shipment. They send you all the supplies you need to make their crafts. Here is the link to the new jewelry line.

Disciple's Cross

The Disciple's Cross is made up of three distinct components. The simulated leather cord reminds us of the leather straps used to beat our Savior; the wrapped wire stands for the thorn branches twisted into a crown to mock the King of Kings; and the nails represent the large spikes that were driven into the hands and feet of the Lord of Lords.

Tiny Details

Artisan Miniatures buys the things you make. You can work at home at any time of the day or night. You are paid for what you produce. Best of all, since there is no limit to the number of kits you can have, there is no limit to the amount you can make.
